What Kratz and His Friends Sav.

This effort on the part of the United States authorities is a political scheme. The Mexican court will not counts nance it and the whole effort will fall to the ground. What was prosecution is now persecution. The year that has clapsed since this case was last dropped has changed many things naterially.

Kratz: "I would be cleared by anybody except a crowd of political intriguers. I will appeal to the Mexican Government to protect the because of my extensive property interests,"

FRIENDS RALLY TO ERATE'S SUPPORT.

Carroll and Schnaider, a former St. Louis salosiouseper, now in business here, are rallying to Kratz's support, however, and there is little probability that he will suffer for want of funds.

It was the fallure of the International which brought Kratz back to Gundalajara. He had gone to Etzatlan, apparently for the purpose of inspecting some of his min-

American Woman Profile is Most Beautiful in the World.

Profiles are once more the fashion. The revolt from the full face and three-quarter clews of women's faces, made by artists and photographers has been growing for the last year.

Now from out the breezy West comes a statement which sinds defiance around the weeth and Beauty new awalts an exceptance of the challenge or a distinct acknowledgment from all nations that we are the most exquisite profile produc-

we are the most exquisite profile produc In all that pertains to art the American girl has been asked to mount a pedestal and turn her prefty cheek to the north while the sun rhees in the east to define and illuminote those points in the eye car, nose, chin and neck which will out point the young woman from across the water or from the lands whose shores touch the Orient.

This statement is going to make trouble. When an American woman is set upon such a pouncie there are sisters in Germany. England, France and Russia, and every other country, for that matter, who every other country, for that matter, who will turn their graceful noses to an angle of 45 degrees and review with little glience the placid claim for the American young woman. She will be accused of that con-ceft with which our millionaires are so ceft with which our millionaires are so heartly charged.

It will be "up to" the American girl to accept any answer to the challenge, and, for that matter, here is a full page of evidence to prove that the Western connaisseur of profiles in women did not hurl his javelin far from the mark when he settled for the stroke.

If by any chance this argument should revert to a discussion among the cities as to which shall have the right to claim the sweetest profile The Republic refuses to assume any responsibility.
